BROADWAY THEATER.

The Broadway theater seems to have The Broadway theater seems to have hit the popular chord with theatergoers who wish to see a good show at a minimum price. Starting today another big combination of vaudeville and pictures will open the fourth successful week of this theater. Take, for instance the headline act this week, free Great Powers; when we say "take" we mean take a look. This one act is well worth the price of admission.

THE AUDITORIUM.

The famous big time act, Eddie De Nover and the Danie Sisters, coming to the Auditorium this week direct from ene of B. F. Keith's metropolitan mandeville houses, will introduce to Newsich something new in the vaudeville line, when they present their neat fittle musical comedy, entitled "Kidamaped." This ministure musical production has made a big hit in all the large cities, and one may find the name Eddie DeNoyer and the Danie Sisters or their photographs in any of the leading vaudeville magazines of today. The Thrillers will present another act out of the ordinary for vaudeville when they introduce the art of making colored pictures with rags. This act is a novel one, to say the least, and is well worth seeing.

George Stakes, "that exer singing comedian," will entertain. A European movelty elack wire and juggling artist is Ella Fondelier, who will do marvelcus and hair raising stunts in the above named lines. The Auditorium Trio will render that beautiful Spanish melody, "Junita," and Miss Morelle will sing a catchy illustrated number. Motion pictures which are new and which have positively never been seen here in town or elsewhere in this vicinity, will be a strong attraction hereafter, as well as the exquisite vaudewille bills. The names of Monday's pictures are as follows: Passional Drama, The Craxy Poet, Vindicated, and The Love of a Savage. All features.

BREED THEATER.

"The Dancing Girl of Butte," Strong Biograph Feature.

Again the Breed theater is to the front with new pictures never before seen in this city. This time it is the superb new Biograph film entitled The Dancing Girl of Butte, being a micture made less than a week ago, and portraying one of the prettlest and brightest plots ever.

A pretty little dancing girl is, by dance in a western dance hall, much against her wishes, and while going to her works slips and falls, and is assisted to her room by a young artist.

her works slips and falls, and is as-stated to her room by a young artist. It is a case of love at first sight, but the young artist is much dismayed up-on learning her profession. The lit-tile dancer is houest in admitting that her work is distasteful to her, and to assure her sultor of the uprightness of it she takes him to the hall to see her dance, and at once gives up her professional life to enjoy matrimonial bliss. This is a photographic study in human nature, and every scene is alled with an interesting event and in human nature, and every scene is filled with an interesting event, and the dainty love story is variegated with little touches of comedy of that peculiarly high class known to the Biograph comedy.

The whole programme is very strong in sensational pictures, but there is an abundance of excellent comedy, which covers 1,000 feet of film. Miss Wolcott will appear in a selected programme of brand new songs.

BROWN UNIVERSITY NOTES. Speakers for Annual Vesper Services-The Institution's Y. M. C. A. Work Shows Increased Vigor.

Brown University, Providence, R. I., Jan. 14, 1916.—The work of the Young Men's Christian association at Brown Men's Christian association at Brown university has shown greatly increased vigor this year under the leadership of the new secretary, C. E. Silcox. The total budget for the year is $2,000 and the alumni are now contributing toward this sum. The various students' Bible classes now number twenty-three. Each of these meets once a week—sometimes a fraternity group, cometimes a group living in a single downitory. Over two hundred students are enrolled in these classes. The leaders meet regularly with some professor or some city pastor in normal groups. The course most popular is that using as a textbook "The Social Teaching of Jesus," by Professor Jenks of Cornell.

The Brown Christian association is also undertaking special responsibility in the Fountain street mission of Providence. Here a work is done for the submerged tenth. The students are expected to provide entertainment for Saturday evenings and to help the men through friendship. The association is also furnishing teachers for the talian mission of Providence, the aim of which is to provide education and subpfulness to Italians above the school are. The aim of all this work, which man."

Is under the charge of the social service committee of the Brown association, is thus set forth by the leader: "To be a brother to some discouraged man."

During the winter vacation the association sent six delegates to the great student volunteer convention held in Rochester, N. Y., and interest in mission study has received considerable impetus from the impressions which these men have brought back with them to college.

In spite of the recent large increase in the engineering departments of Brown, the university continues to hold its own in the number of students for the ministry. There are now thirty students who have the ministry in view, and several are preaching each Sunday in places near Providence. Thirteen of these are missionary volunteers. A recent census of Brown university graduates shows a strong tendency to enter Y. M. C. A. work. In New England Brown men are now acting as secretaries of the Young Men's Christian associations in Brockton, New Bedford, Bridgeport, Melrose, Providence and Cambridge, while four Brown graduates are secretaries of the international committee in New David Wilkinson Smith, assistant in the department of Greek, was struck by a car and instantly killed on Dec. 30 near his home in North Smithfield, R. I. The accident was due to miscalculation of the speed of the car while Mr. Smith was graduated from Brown in the class of 1907, taking both the A. B. and A. M. degrees in four years. Throughout his course he maintained a very high scholarship and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa society in his junior year. He received final honors and special prizes in Latin and Greek. At the time of his death, besides holding his position in the Greek department, Mr. Smith was an enrolled candidate for the degree of doctor of philosophy in Greek and Latin. A very wide circle-in college of friends whom he had won by his rare friendliness, high scholastic attainments and a keen sense of humor mourn him as a man who will be genuinely missed.

Walter Camp's selection of an All-American football team for the season of 1909 includes Captain Regnier of Brown as one of the ends. Sprackling, Brown's quarterback, is given a place on Mr. Camp's third eleven.

The dedication of the Gen. Lew Wal-lace memorial in the capitol at Wash-ington recalls the story of how the Indiana soldier, statesman, lecturer and author came to write the famous book "Ben Hur." Gen. Wallace and Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, were fast friends. On many occasions they discussed the Bible. Of course Gen. Wallace upheld the teachings contained therein while Col. Ingersoll disagreed with him. On one accasion, Ingersoll requested Gen. one occasion ingersoil requested Gen. Wallace to read the Bible again and to place the interpretation on the various passages as he (Ingersoil) directed. Gen. Wallace read the Bible again. The result, according to the story, was the book "Ben Hur."

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. I had three good doctors but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Cintment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading all over my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle, together with the Cuticura Cintment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. To any one who has any skin or blood disease I would honestly advise them to fool with nothing else, but to get Cuticura and get well. My hands have never given me the least bit of trouble up to now. "My daughter's hands this summer became perfectly raw with eczema. She could get nothing that would do them any good until she tried Cuticura. She used Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Cointment and in two weeks they were entirely cured. I have used Cuticura for other members of my family and it always proved successful. Mrs. M. E. ### FOETRY.

A LITTLE SONG OF ANCIENT EGYPT Long ago in Egypt the strange kings were walking; Bunrise and sunset and the midday Rain and the bird's voice was theirs for the taking:
They lived, and we live, and Life's not done.

Long ago in Egypt the atrange kings grew older; Year in and year out, and the Spring's illures; All these they knew; and, ere their hearts grew colder, They loved, and we love, and Love endures.

Long ago in Egypt the end drew a-nearer;
Daylight and midnight, and stars overhead;
All these they saw; and, as daylight grew dearer.
They died, and we die, but Death's not dead.

Far away in Egypt the strange kings lie sleeping—
Rising and falling the eld Nile flows;
Through seedtims and growing, and the time for reaping.
They wait, and we wait, for what—none knows,
—Ethel Chiford.

BRAVE LOVE.

He'd nothing but his violin.
I'd nothing but my song.
But we were wed when skies were blue And summer days were long.
And summer days were long.
And when we rested by the hedge
The robins came and told
How they had dared to woo and win
When early spring was cold.
We sometimes supped on dewberries.
Or slept among the hay,
But oft the farmers' wives at eve
Came out to hear us play
The rare old tunes—the dear eld tunes—
We could not starve for long,
While my man had his violin
And I my sweet love song. TO REN's—Basement at 55 Frankiln street; suitable for the paint, plumbing or similar business. may17d

The world has aye gone well with us, Old man, since we were one—Our homeless wandering down the lance—It long ago was done.

But those who wait for gold or gear, For houses and for kine, Fill youth's sweet spring grows brows and sere.

And love and beauty tine, Will never know the joy of hearts. That met without a fear, When you had but your violin, And I a song, my dear.

—Mary Kyle Dellas.
